Ludwig Heinrich von Nicolay 1737 1820 is virtually unknown in our time yet at the close of the eighteenth century he enjoyed a considerable reputation as a German poet of the French neo-classical orientation he was esteemed as tutor to the Russian Emperor Paul I as Russian state councillor and as president of the Russian Imperial Academy of Sciences moreover he was a friend of the most prominent eighteenth century minds that left their imprints on modern thought as such a man Nicolay may be studied from several points of view as a writer as an educator and as an intellectual my first preoccupation with Nicolay was of a literary nature which resulted in a doctoral dissertation presented to the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor 1960 under the title Ludwig Heinrich von Nicolay 1737 1820 as an exponent of neo-classicism the existence of the Nicolay archives now in the possession of the Countess von der Pahlen in Helsinki was not known to me at the time having later gained access to the same I discovered a vast amount of unpublished documents and a treasury of correspondence with the leading intellectuals of the eighteenth and the beginning of the nineteenth centuries much of this material was to be published in conjunction with the late Countess von der Pahlen who unexpectedly and unfortunately died in 1963

The fifteenth triennial congress of the International Association for Analytical Psychology (IAAP) took place on the grounds of St John's College in Cambridge England from 19 to 24 August 2001 it was a memorable occasion both in its preparation and its incarnation and the present volume is meant to preserve at least a portion of what transpired the papers comprising the program the presentations and events were more far-reaching and all-inclusive than ever before incorporating numerous political and intercultural issues and including representatives from psychoanalysis and other fields of endeavour for the first time
